The image shows a Windows 8 Start screen with a grid of tiles. A settings menu is open on the left, displaying two color selection sections. The 'Background color' section has a grid of 15 color swatches, with a hand pointing to the red one. Below it is a horizontal color bar. The 'Accent color' section has a grid of 15 color swatches, with a hand pointing to the purple one. Below it is a horizontal color bar. The background of the Start screen is a vibrant orange-red color with a large, stylized graphic of a hand or a flower in the upper right corner.
